PINOT GRIS 1996

This delicate and versatile dry white wine has its origins in Alsace, where it is also known as Tokay d'Alsace, and Northern Italy, where it is called Pinot Grigio.

The temperate climate of the Temecula Valley provides for perfect ripening of the Pinot Gris fruit. The wine is aged for only a short time in French oak barrels to add a hint of vanilla to its fig-like aromas and subtle citrus flavors. Enjoy this wine with light pasta dishes and grilled seafood.

Since 1969, we have practiced responsible stewardship of our environment. The Hawk Watch symbol on the front label symbolizes this commitment.
